Mr J. Edgar Hoover
Washington D.C.

Dear Sir;

Some time ago I recieved a card from a lady in New York asking if I would like to have some material on Russia, thinking that I might use it for referance material, I mailed the card back to her and in the mean time I have been sent two copies of Russia Today, which I am sending to you.

In 1939 I was sent material on Germany from the German Library of Information out of New York and now wonder if there is any connection in the mailing list of the two. I sent you some of the material I recieved at that time.

Please advise me what to do as I don't want any one to doubt my loyalty to the Unites States.

Yours truly

Central Books, News Agents and distributors of Communist literature, informed that the March 1956 issue of British Soviet Friendship did not appear. The Bureau will recall that Russia Today ceased publication with the January-February issue and that it was succeeded by British Soviet Friendship which made its first appearance in April 1956; consequently, neither of these journals appeared during March 1956.
